The Need:

Fred Victor's mission is to improve the health, income and housing stability of people experiencing homelessness and/or poverty in Toronto. Every day, more than 2,000 people use our programs and services. In order to see first-hand the challenges and barriers our community members face and how Fred Victor is working to end homelessness, volunteers will participate in a guided tour of Fred Victor's downtown sites. Through lunch, a hands on activity, an interactive component, site stops and knowledgeable Fred Victor tour guides, volunteers will learn the facts and bust the myths about homelessness and poverty.

The Activity:

- 12:00pm – Lunch catered by Friends Catering – Fred Victor's Social Enterprise
- Hands On activity – Supplies-kit-building for a designated Fred Victor Program
- Tour of Fred Victor's downtown locations:
 1. Volunteers will be led to each program by Fred Victor Tour Guides
 2. Wrap up and debrief at final stop
